Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C &amp; D:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to comply production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance,

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (3) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or the demanding party to contest the claim.

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unrelated expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

Attachment A

Instructions

1. If you object to any part of a request and refuse to answer that part, state your objection and answer the remaining portion of that request.
If you object to the scope or time period of a request and refuse to answer for that scope or time period, state your objection and answer the request for the scope or time period you believe is appropriate (including in your answer a specific statement as to why you believe the scope or time period is inappropriate).
2. If any of the following requests cannot be answered in full after exercising due diligence to secure the information, please so state and answer to the extent possible, specifying your inability to answer the remainder and stating whatever information you have concerning the unanswered portions. If your answer is qualified in any particular, set forth the details of such qualification.
3. You must produce all documents responsive to these requests which are in your actual or constructive possession, custody or control, including all documents within the actual or constructive possession, custody or control of any representative, agent, employee, attorney, accountant, investigator or any person acting for you or on your behalf.

4. All documents are to be produced as they are kept in the usual course of business, in the files in which such documents have been maintained, and in the order within each file in which such documents have been maintained; or all documents shall be organized and labeled to correspond with the requests below. All documents are to be produced along with copies of the file folders in which they are kept.

5. If, in responding to the requests, you claim that there is any ambiguity in either a particular request or in a definition or an instruction applicable thereto, such claim shall not be used by you as a basis for refusing to respond, but you shall set forth as part of the response the language deemed to be ambiguous and the interpretation chosen or used in responding to the particular request.

6. For purposes of interpreting or construing the following requests, the terms used are to be given their most expansive and inclusive interpretation unless otherwise specifically limited in the document request itself. This includes, without limitation, the following:

a. Construing the words "and" and "or" used in any document request in the disjunctive or conjunctive as necessary, to make the document request more inclusive;

- b. Construing the words "any" and "all" used in any document request to mean "any and all" as necessary to make the document request more inclusive;
- c. Construing the singular form of any word to include the plural and the plural form to include the singular; and
- d. Construing the masculine form to include the feminine and/or the gender neutral form.

7. Electronic records and computerized information are to be produced in an intelligible format together with a description of the system from which it is derived sufficient to permit rendering the material intelligible.

Definitions

- 1. The term "relating to" means referring to, regarding, evidencing, describing, supporting, refuting, and/or constituting.
- 2. The term "document" or "documents" means and includes any kind of written, typewritten or printed materials; any tangible recording of any form of statement, communication or representation; and all other data compilation from which information can be obtained (translated, if necessary, by you through detection devices into reasonably usable form) including, but not limited to, writings and all non-identical copies and drafts thereof, notes, memoranda, letters, calendars, appointment books, diaries, notes or minutes of meetings or conversations, catalogs, written agreements, microfilm, graphs, charts, drawings, plans, computer discs, computer tapes, computer cards, computer printouts, tape and sound records, photo records, inter-office communications, reports, photographs, cables, telegrams, telexes, account books, ledger sheets, canceled checks, invoices, bills, receipts, financial statements or any other form of "writing" as defined in Federal Rule of Evidence 1001.

3. The term "TFT-LCD module" means thin film transistor liquid crystal display module.

4. The term "mounting hole" means a hole, such as a screw hole, used for mounting or attaching the TFT-LCD module to equipment or to another component, such as a housing.

5. The term "communications" means every manner of disclosure, transfer or exchange of information, whether person to person, in a group, orally, in writing, by telephone, by electronic transmission, or otherwise, including letter or other correspondence, electronic mail, telephone message, memorandum, or telegram.
